Attending citizens and their business.

Denzil Woodley of 518 E. 2nd Street addressed Council on the heavy trucks and pollution on East 2nd Street. They have knocked down his trash and affected the ceiling and sheet rock to crack at his house.

Manning Rollerson of 1921 Yellowstone stated that he has dumping on his property in the East End. He is living with his son on Yellowstone and Ave. O and has observed citizens; policemen and council members run the stop sign.

Jessie Parker of 323 E. 7th Street, has reported pot holes in front of house, nothing has been done to correct it.

Vivian Alford of E. Broad stated that the trucks do not stop at yield signs and the roads are in terrible shape. Sycamore, 2nd Street, Broad Street has pot holes and 4th Street has caved in. She asked if the Port could take property through eminent domain.

Keith Stambaugh of 518 W. 4th Street is a Registered Professional Engineer for the State of Texas, is required by the Texas State Law to take continuing education classes, 15 hours a year and one of the classes is Ethics. He received in the mail a flier from a private enterprise with the City's postage. He recommends that Council take a class of Ethical Behavior to avoid the appearance of unethical behavior.

Margaret McMahan of 1330 W. 8th St., and spokesperson for the Concern Citizens of Freeport, voiced concern about the apparent life, Ethics and transparency being displayed by our city government: She read out 10 Ethics Violations; limited citizens involvement and debate; stop conversation and debate from citizens who elected you; the manner that boards and commissions were conducted, motions made and no call for discussion, appointing a family member to the boards and commissions of the city; violates the Charter Review, Nepotism rule, using public funds to market non city related events in the city's utilities bill, failure to follow the Planning Commission recommendation when it comes to developing roads and infrastructure, selectively enforcing of city ordinances against certain families can be seen as discriminatory; dismissal of staff members; Human Resources, Fire Chief, Parks Director and Code Enforcement, City employees driving city vehicles to home; 90% of the citizens prefer that roads, sewers and infrastructure to fixed prior to spending $12,000,000, on a Sports Complex, City Manager applying double standard rules, showing favoritism and selectively enforcement new rules on facilities for certain city groups. A member of the City Council being on the Lions Club and on the Blue Festival is a conflict of interest when it's being budgeted.

Johnathan Sublet of 402 W. 4th St., is 36 years old and holds 2 degrees, has been refused service several times. Coming to Freeport, he has built a relationship with Ty Morrow and Chief Dan Pennington and others. Building relationships, having goals, seeing them at breakfast, working out with the SWAT team at the gym, makes him feel safe in the community. He thanks Law Enforcement.
